My visit to SPÄRK

Rochester Children’s Museum
We are going to visit Spark Children’s Museum.
There will be many fun things for me to see, hear and touch as I play and learn.
Here is a picture of the front of the museum.
We will check in at the front desk. I will stay near my adult even though I am excited to explore.
There will be lots of colors and all the colors are very fun.
I can check out a sensory friendly bag at the front desk. I can use any of the items inside to help me enjoy all activities at the museum. I will return the bag when we leave.
There may be other children playing with the things that I want to try. That is okay. I can wait until they are done to take my turn or ask them if I can play next to them.
Other children may bump into me on accident. That is also okay. I can say, “excuse me” and continue playing.
There may be some noises that surprise me, like announcements over the intercom or a child yelling because they are excited. I know I am safe.
When I am ready to move to a new area, I will tell my adult so we can go together.
Spark is a fun place to visit and there are many things happening at once.

There are places I can go if it gets to be too much. I can relax there.
Everyone at Spark thinks I am great, and they are always happy to see me.
